Exhibit "A" Terms and Conditions

Agency: The Auctioneer is an agent of the Seller in this transaction. The Bidder is considered a Customer of the Auctioneer and the Auctioneer will not act as your agent. The Auctioneer will receive valuable consideration for its efforts as agent in this transaction from the Seller.

Auctioneer will not discriminate based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap or familial status and will comply with all federal, state and local fair housing and civil rights laws and with all equal opportunity requirements.

Registration: All Bidders must register with the Auctioneer. By registering and bidding, the Bidder acknowledges that he/she has read and agrees to the Real Estate Online Terms and Conditions as well as the Contract Package. The Bidder agrees to sign the Contract of Sale and other documents related to the transaction, pay the required earnest money deposit, and close the transaction if he/she is determined to be the highest Bidder.

Bidder Verification: The identity of all Bidders will be verified. A Visa or MasterCard is required to register. No charges will be made to your card unless you are determined to be the winning Bidder, and you fail to execute the Contract of Sale and pay the required earnest money deposit.

Contract Package: Documents that will require your signature will be included as a part of the Contract Package. These are available in the auction listing at www.terryhowe.com. These documents may include, but are not limited to the following documents: Agency Disclosure, Terms and Conditions, Contract of Sale, Survey or Plat, Tax Map, Restrictive Covenants, Lead Based Paint Brochure, Lead Based Paint Disclosure Form, Sellers' Property Disclosure (residential property only), Termite Inspection Report, Appraisal, Home Inspection Report, Estimates of Repairs, Reports of Completed Repairs, Zoning, Bidding Increments, and other documents pertaining to the sale and purchase of the property. All documents are not required for every auction. If they are not posted in the auction listing, they are unavailable.

Online Bidding: This is an online timed auction. There will not be a live auction. All bids must be placed online. The Auctioneer is not responsible for malfunctions or system errors, which cause a bid or bidder to fail to be recognized or registered.

Maximum Bid: When placing a bid under the Maximum Bid Column, the online bidding system will enter your bid as the next required bid and continue to bid for you up to your Maximum Bid amount. For example, if the next required bid is $5,000.00, and you enter $10,000.00, then the online bidding system will immediately enter your bid as $5,000.00. The online bidding system will continue to bid up to $10,000.00 on your behalf using the preset auction increments as other bidders place their bids.

If you are the high bidder at $5,000.00 with a Maximum Bid of $10,000.00, and another bidder places the next required bid of $5,250.00, then the online bidding system will bid for you at the next increment of $5,500.00, and so on. If at such time a bidder places a bid that is higher than your Maximum Bid, then you will be outbid. If you are not outbid, then it is possible that you may win the bid for an amount less than your Maximum Bid.

Extended Bidding: All online auctions have a scheduled ending time. All auctions have an extended bidding feature. Each auction will automatically extend if a bid is received in the last five (5) minutes prior to the scheduled ending time. For example: If an auction is scheduled to end at 1:00 PM, and a bid is received at 12:58 PM on an individual item, then the bidding will remain open on that item until 1:03 PM. The extended bidding will remain active until no additional bids are received in a five (5) minute time period.

Bidding Errors: If you mistakenly increase your own bid, place your bidder number in the bid field, or make any other gross bidding error, you must contact our office immediately by email. If an adjustment is made to your bid, you must remain the high bidder.

We will not reverse bids that have caused another bidder to be outbid. We will not reverse any bids after the auction has begun to close, no exceptions.

Server & Software Technical Issues: In the event there are technical difficulties related to the server, software or any other online auction-related technologies, the Auctioneer reserves the right to extend bidding, continue the bidding, or close the bidding. Neither the Auctioneer nor the online bidding software and service provider shall be held responsible for a missed bid or the failure of the software to function properly for any reason.

The Auctioneer reserves the right to cancel, suspend, extend or reschedule an individual item or auction event. The auctioneer reserves the right to make changes to the auction closing times or inspection or removal times. Email notifications will be sent to registered bidders with updated information as deemed necessary by the Auctioneer.

Contract Sales Price: The Contract Sales Price will be determined by adding your bid price and a Buyers' Premium equal to a percentage of the bid price together. The Buyers' Premium can vary for different auctions, and is disclosed at the beginning of these Terms and Conditions. Below is an example of how this calculation works using a fifteen percent (15%) Buyers' Premium.

Example:	Bid Price	$100,000.00
	Buyers' Premium	$15,000.00
	Contract Sales Price	$115,000.00

Contract Execution: Within two (2) hours of the conclusion of the bidding, a Contract of Sale and other required documents will be emailed to the address provided at registration. Bidder will have twenty-four (24) hours from the conclusion of the auction to return all documents along with the required earnest money deposit. The earnest money deposit will be applied towards the purchase price. The Contract of Sale can be faxed, scanned, mailed overnight, or hand delivered to our offices at 1129 Locust Hill Rd. Greer, South Carolina. Acceptable methods of payment for the earnest money deposit are: Cash (delivered in person to our offices), certified funds, bank check or wire transfer. Credit cards are not accepted for earnest money deposits. Successful Bidders not executing and returning the executed Contract of Sale with the earnest money within twenty-four (24) hours from the conclusion of the auction will be considered in default.

Failure to Execute Contract: At the discretion of the Auctioneer, a penalty of up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) will be charged to the credit card provided at registration if you are determined to be the high bidder and fail to return the signed Contract of Sale and pay the required earnest money deposit within the required time period. Payment of the penalty shall not affect other remedies available to the seller for such failure.

Escrow Agent: Purchaser designates Terry Howe and Associates, Inc. to hold any earnest money deposit made in accordance with the purchase and sale of the property. Earnest money deposit may be held in an interest bearing account. Escrow Agent will retain any and all interest earned on the earnest money deposit.

No Contingencies: The property is being sold for cash. The earnest money is not considered an "option" payment. There are no contingencies for bank financing, inspections, repairs, or other conditions. The Bidder may use a lender, but it is recommended that you secure financing prior to bidding.

Closing: The balance of the sales price will be due on or before the designated closing date. The Seller reserves the right to extend the closing date an additional thirty (30) days, if necessary. The closing will take place at the offices of the closing attorney named above. The Purchaser will pay all closing costs. These costs will include, but are not limited to: attorney fees, deed preparation and wire transfer fees. The Deed will be furnished by the Seller, with the cost of preparation paid for by the Purchaser. Seller and Purchaser authorize their respective attorneys and the settlement agent to furnish to Listing Broker and Selling Broker copies of the closing disclosure, ALTA settlement statement, HUD1, or other settlement forms.

Closing Attorney: The closing attorney will prepare all documents pertaining to the closing. You can use your own attorney to review the documents; however, the closing will take place at the named closing attorney's office.

Forfeiture of the earnest money deposit shall not affect any other remedies available to the Seller for such failure.

Purchaser further acknowledges that Purchaser is relying solely on Purchaser's own investigation of the property and not on any information provided by or on behalf of Seller or Auctioneer.

Indemnification and Release: Purchaser and anyone claiming by, through or under Purchaser hereby fully and irrevocably release Seller and Auctioneer and their respective employees, officers, directors, representatives, and agents from any and all claims that Purchaser may have or hereafter acquire against Seller and Auctioneer, their employees, officers, directors, representatives and agents for any cost, loss, liability, damage, expense, demand, action or cause of action arising from or related to any construction defects, errors, omissions or other conditions, including environmental matters, affecting the property, or any portion thereof.

SALE INFORMATION

DISCLAIMER

This publication is designed to answer questions regarding the properties that are subject to this auction.

The material in this booklet is not intended as a substitute for professional advice or assistance. We encourage prospective purchasers to consult an attorney. Keep foremost in mind that it is up to the purchasers to assure themselves as to the soundness of the sale and the deed to be acquired at the sale. No warranties are given or implied and clear title is not contemplated. Our primary concern is placing these properties back on the tax digest. The conveying of property, or rights to property, is coincidental.

ATTENTION

Decatur County acquired all properties subject to this auction by a tax sale. At the sale, Decatur County only acquired “defeasible” title to property. Decatur County has no right to possession of the property. To acquire fee simple title to property, a tax deed purchaser must foreclose the right to redeem pursuant to state law.

The legal axiom of caveat emptor or “buyer beware” applies to this auction (O.C.G.A. § 9-13-167). Therefore, you are charged with knowledge of the titles of the properties that are sold and any defects in these titles. Decatur County does not warrant the titles and no title search has been conducted.

Decatur County reserves the right to void any sale that is later determined to have errors that make the sale invalid. Decatur County cannot and does not guarantee any expected gain on your investment.

Decatur County has no knowledge of the condition of the structures or whether county sewer or water lines serve any particular area or street. Decatur County has no knowledge whether a particular parcel or lot will be approved for a building or a septic tank. Decatur County has no knowledge of whether there are any easements on the property.

Be aware that other taxes might be unpaid. If the parcel of land is located in a city that collects its own taxes, the city taxes could be unpaid as well. It is also possible that additional county taxes have become delinquent since the initial tax sale.

Anyone contemplating purchasing a tax sale property at this auction should consult an attorney, assure oneself that the title is good, verify the information we have gathered, read those sections of Georgia law pertaining to tax sales.

RIGHT OF REDEMPTION AND THE AMOUNT PAYABLE FOR REDEMPTION

ALL PROPERTIES LISTED IN THIS AUCTION ARE SUBJECT TO THE RIGHT OF REDEMPTION. When real property is sold at a tax sale, whether to an individual or to Decatur County, the defendant in fi. fa. or any person having any right, title, or interest in or lien in the property may redeem the property from the holder of the tax deed. (O.C.G.A. §48-4-40).

The owner, creditor, or any other person with interest in the property may redeem the property at any time during the twelve (12) months following the tax sale or until the purchaser cuts off the right of redemption. Until the right of redemption is cut off, a purchaser cannot take actual possession of the property during this time. The purchaser is not authorized to receive rents or make improvements to any structure on the property or grade any lot prior to this time. (O.C.G.A. §48-4-40).

If redeeming, the owner, creditor, or any other person with interest in the property, must pay the tax deed purchaser, the amount paid for the property at tax sale, plus 20% premium for the first year or fraction of a year, plus any taxes paid on the property by the purchaser after the sale, plus any special assessment on the property, and a 10% premium of the amount for each additional year or fraction of a year, which has elapsed since the date of sale plus costs. A premium of 20% must also be paid when Decatur County is the purchaser (O.C.G.A. §48-4-42). THIS AMOUNT IS DETERMINED BY THE AMOUNT DECATUR COUNTY PAID FOR THE PROPERTY AT THE ORIGINAL TAX SALE, NOT THE AMOUNT THE PROPERTY SELLS FOR AT THIS AUCTION. IMPORTANT: IF YOUR BID IS MORE THAN THE REDEMPTION PRICE, AND THE TAX PAYER REDEEMS THE PROPERTY, YOU MAY BE PAID LESS THAN YOU PAID FOR THE PROPERTY AT THE AUCTION.

When the property has been redeemed (all monies due the purchaser paid as prescribed by law), the purchaser shall then issue a quitclaim deed to the owner of the property (as stated on the fi. fa.) releasing the property from the tax deed. (O.C.G.A. §48-4-43 and 48-4-44)

This redemption of the property shall put the title conveyed back to the owner, subject to all liens that existed at the time of the tax sale. If the redemption was made by any creditor of the owner or by any person having any interest in the property, the amount expended by the creditor or the person interested shall constitute a first lien on the property. (O.C.G.A. §48-4-44).

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE OF RIGHT TO REDEEM

The right of redemption may be cut off after twelve months has passed since the original tax sale. All properties subject to this auction have been in Decatur County's name for more than the twelve month period so the process to cut off the right of redemption may be initiated immediately after the sale. The purchaser at this auction may terminate or foreclose on the tax payer's right to redeem the property by causing a notice or notices of the foreclosure to be served by certified mail to the owner of record at time of the tax sale, the occupant and to all interest holders which appear on the public record. In addition, the notice of foreclosure is to be published in the county in which the property is located, once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks (O.C.G.A. §48-4-45).

If the redemption is not made until after the notice has been given, then the costs of serving the notice or notices and publishing the notice shall be added to the redemption price to cover the cost of making the necessary examinations to determine the persons upon whom notice should be served (O.C.G.A. §48-4-42).

FORECLOSURE OF THE RIGHT OF REDEMPTION DOES NOT CREATE A MARKETABLE TITLE.

After foreclosing the right of redemption, we recommend that the purchaser seek legal advice regarding the petition to quiet title in land, pursuant to O.C.G.A. §23-3-60.

Under the action, the petitioner (tax deed purchaser) makes a request to the court to take jurisdiction over the matter. Depending upon the action selected, the court may appoint a Special Master (third party) to examine the petition and exhibits to determine who is entitled to notice. The petitioner will then ask the court to issue a decree establishing his/her title in the land against “all the world” and that all “clouds to petitioner’s title to the land be removed” and that “said decree be recorded as provided by law.”

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I\we also acknowledge Decatur County, Georgia has not performed a title search on this Property. I\we understand that if the Taxpayer redeems this property, the payment amount for the redemption shall be calculated based on the sale price when Decatur County purchased the property at the tax sale, not based on my\our purchase price at this sale.
